USER WORKFLOWS

EXPERIENCE FRAMEWORKS

The New Lexis Experience Framework

Users research case law in order to...

- Answer a partner's or client's questions.
- Determine what their firm would eventually have to prove.
- Develop trial strategies.
- Calculate damages, etc.

1

Start by “pre-searching” on Google

To gain a deeper understanding of legal issues, identify key issues, terms, topics, and concepts, and formulate a specific search.

2

Then login into Westlaw or Lexis.com

To find a relevant authority and develop a response.

3

Find a key case with similar:

- Legal Issues
- Fact Patterns
- Jurisdiction

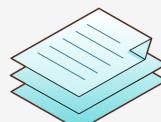

4

Find research materials that are relevant to the key case:

Find cases by viewing...

- citations in the key case,
- relevant topics and concepts,
- cases cited by statutes,
- citation analysis,
- and/or briefs.

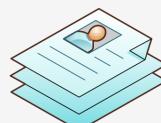

Find statutes by comparing...

- regulations across multiple jurisdictions,
- statutes across multiple jurisdictions,
- equivalent statutes from other jurisdictions.

Use citation analysis to...

- determine if a case is still good law,
- follow a line of cases,
- find case history for a particular case,

Review secondary materials...

Such as court rules and transcripts, verdicts, briefs, and dockets, public records and news, treaties, practice guides, law reviews, treatises,

CLICKABLE WIREFRAMES

The wireframe diagram illustrates the layout of the Lexis Advance homepage. At the top, there is a header bar with the Lexis Advance logo, navigation icons (back, forward, search, home), and a connection status message "ilabswin06:9751". Below the header is a red sidebar containing the Lexis Advance logo, a "Research" button, and sections for "WORKSPACES" (Research, Bankruptcy, Add Workspace) and "WIDGETS" (Widget Gallery). The main content area features a large "Lexis® Advance" logo and a red banner with the text "Search LexisNexis® and select legal content from Lexis® Web®". Below the banner is a search bar with placeholder text "Enter search terms, a citation, or shep: to Shepardize®" and dropdown menus for "Content Types", "Jurisdictions", and "Practice Areas & Topics". To the right of the search bar is a "Shepardize" button. The main content area is divided into several sections: "History" (listing "Document Title" entries), "Folders" (listing "Folder Name" entries), "Alerts" (listing "Alert Title" entries), "Clients" (listing "Client Name" entries), "Favorites" (listing "Favorite Document Title" entries), and "Support" (with links to "Access Lexis Advanced", "View help topics or see help", "Browse the help", "View a Tutorial", "Searching", "Working with results", and "Contact Customer Support" with a phone number "Phone: 1-800-543-6843").

AXURE PROTOTYPING

The prototype is a wireframe representation of the Lexis Advance website. It features a header with the Lexis Advance logo, a search bar containing 'advance.lexis.com', and a toolbar with icons for back, forward, search, and home. A sidebar on the left contains a 'Lexis Marketplace' section with a brief description and a link to 'vance'. The main content area includes a search bar, a 'Set Jurisdiction' button, and sections for 'Topics' and 'Sources'. The 'Topics' section lists various legal categories like Bankruptcy, Business Law, and Criminal Law. The 'Sources' section shows a grid of legal books from a 'Bookshelf'. At the bottom, there are links for 'Workfolders', 'History', 'Marketplace', and 'Lib'.

GAMIFICATION
